Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Portuesi (5,987,509).

Portuesi, in Figures 1-5, discloses the same integrating broadcast television pause and web browsing in an interactive television system that is configured for displaying television programs, hyperlinks and corresponding data as specified in claims 1-38 of the present invention, the system and method for pausing the display of a television program that is displayed at the television system in response to a selection of a hyperlink URL 26 that is displayed with the television program, the method comprising the acts of displaying a television program at the interactive television system 4 while the television program is being broadcast, the television program being displayed with a hyperlink URL 26; as a television program is being displayed, receiving input 32 selecting the hyperlink; in response to the input, accessing data corresponding to the hyperlink 26; pausing the display of the television program (e.g. among other VCR functions) in response to the input selecting the hyperlink 26 and in response to obtaining the data corresponding to the hyperlink 26, while the television program is being broadcast and so as to enable subsequent viewing of the paused television program in a time-shifted manner (e.g. using a fixed storage); and as the display of the television program is paused, displaying the data corresponding to the hyperlink 26.

With respect to claims 2-38, Portuesi also discloses accessing the web page URL 26; receiving a resume display command (e.g. open display window); ceasing to display the data corresponding to the hyperlink (e.g. closing display window); resuming display of the paused television program at the point at which the television program was paused (i.e. play); storing the data corresponding to the hyperlink in memory 72; recording a signal in which the television program is encoded on a recording medium VCR; and simultaneously displaying a still image associated with the television program in a second frame on the television 12.

Response to Arguments

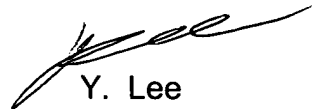

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-38 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
